them, while this perfection does not seem to have been so much sought after in the construction of other clocks of the kind. The clock, with the turn of every baif hour, presente the prologue and the holy passion, accurately illustrating the birth, life and crucifixion of our Savior. It contains 200 carved and costumed figures, 17 distinct movements, 13 different scenes and actions, 800 revolving wheels, miles of brazen wire and half a ton of weight. The case containing its multiple mechanism is seventeen feet and six inches high, twelve feet, six inches wide, and three feet in depth. It is divided into base and auperstructure, and the whole decoratively treated, being divided into five compartments, separated by pillars. Fourteen scenes are shown, all worked by electricity. Miss Myrtle Kingsland, the accomplished and interesting lecturess, dearribes, explains and interesting lectures, describes, explains and interesting lectures, described and interesting lectures, described by pillars.

COURT-HOUSE LOCALS.

Charles Steibing has been given his one year sentence North. John C. F. Gordon was admitted to practice in Room 3 yesterday.

Alice D. Poland and Martha Poland have sued Samuel Daniels for $5,000 damages, alleging for cause that they rented of defendant the property on South East street where they live, and that on the 5th day of January Alice fell through a hole in the kitchen floor, receiving injuries of a permanent character.

The Coroner yesterday returned verdicts in several cases which have been inquested by him during the pest month. The roturns are as follows:

Mrs. Margaret Beck, of 128 Biake street died of nervous shock following child-birth; Conrad Pflum came to his death either from beart disease superinduced by alcohol and exposure or by poison self-administered, the only evidence of the latter being the letters written by him to his wife and children. Christian Brademeir, corner Dorman and St. Clair streets, died of an incised wound in the neck, self-inflicted. Lewis Washington, colored, corner of Seventh and Mississippi streets, died of cold, exposure, and want of food. Busan M. Hensiey, 130 East Market street, died from the effects of an abortion produced by some person other than herself. The Coroner adds: "I also find that the abortion was produced with an instrument of instruments. I further find that Charlos 8. Hensley was accessory in causing her death."

Nothing new has been developed in the whole sale markets: quiet still prevails in most departments with little prospect of immediate change. Dry goods are receiving many small orders and show a littleflife. Groceries are in about as much mand as usual for the season and average firm. Dairy products show a continued duliness though there is some inquiry for cheese. Fish are in better request, and for lake descriptions and mackerel the feeling is strong. Oils remain quiet and curing smoky chimneys, which are generally caused by wind blowing into the top of the chimney and obstructing the ascending current of smoke. But these tops are made in such a shape as to throw up any transverse current of wind and cause it to pass over the flue instead of into it. They are easily applied to any common chimney with ce-ment or mortar See that the top is set perfectly level and they will resist as heavy wind storms as the chimney itself will Call and see

These Chimney Toes are highly ornamental as well as useful for
